Hi-Fi News' readers were granted an exclusive insight into SME's plans for its future [HFN Jun '17] but only visitors to The Hi-Fi Show Live will get to see and hear the very latest vinyl-spinning delights, fresh from the famous factory...

A tapered tube absorber shows the form and function of Vivid Audio's G3 loudspeakers in perfect harmony. These iconic designs will be making sweet sounds alongside Mola-Mola's latest electronics [HFN Aug '17] at The Hi-Fi Show Live

Music Masterclass

The extraordinary cellist, Vincent Bélanger, will be playing live to audiences in the Audio Note room and illustrating just how much influence the bow has on the final sound of the instrument. With vintage and modern examples to hand, Vincent will demonstrate that an artist's choice of bow is like an enthusiast choosing his cables!

Courtesy of premium high-end distributors Absolute Sounds, the latest Homage Tradition range of Sonus faber loudspeakers will be on show and demonstration at The Hi-Fi Show Live. Pictured here is the flagship of the Homage Tradition collection, the glorious Amati, also available in a new Wengè finish with maple inlays
